2016 LOVE & MARRIAGE DESTINY REPORT

Dear ABC,

THANKS FOR CHOOSING <http://www.indastro.com/>

We have been providing astrology consultation and advice on true Vedic principles on the internet since 2000 and serviced over a million customers with our free and premium services. As per your requirement, we have prepared 2016 LOVE & MARRIAGE DESTINY REPORT:

1. General trends for love and marriage:

Your birth ascendant is Sagittarius.

The symbol of the Sagittarius is the Archer. The Sagittarius ruling planet is Jupiter and the element is Fire. Thursdays are said to be lucky days for Sagittarius. Strengths of the Sagittarius include honesty, forthrightness, lightheartedness, intellectualism, and possession of excellent communication skills. Weaknesses of the Sagittarius are sharp tongue, prone to change, restlessness and a flirtatious nature.

Sagittarius has a way with words like no other. They try to come across nice and friendly but normally end up hurting the feelings of others or just downright annoying others. They are not at all gifted with a talent for dishing out compliments. Most often compliments will come out more like insults and any attempts to correct misunderstandings are futile.

Sagittarius is animal lovers and is most always the ones apt to take in homeless and stray animals that no one else would think about touching. They will nurture these outcasts back to health and prove they can be wonderful pets.

Sagittarius is the first ones to try to cheer up friends when they are down. Though they may not be the greatest at this, nonetheless they will try. You may find yourself laughing whether you want to or not in their presence.

Decisions of the heart take Sagittarius some time to make. They fall in love easily, but do not love lightly. A long internal struggle goes on inside the head of a Sagittarius before a decision related to commitment can be arrived at.

The fifth house of love falls in the Aries sign whose ruling planet is Mars. Mars is in the seventh house of marriage. This is favorable to get married to a loving partner. Mars in the seventh house is forming Manglik yoga. Presence of Mars in the seventh house is not favorable for the longevity of married life. During the period of Mars you could be making love AND war in equal doses. Mars spices up your love life, but it can also stir emotional tension or move things a little too quickly. You shall have to be more accommodating and understanding in your love life during this period. You must be willing to accept your partner for all his foibles and shortcomings. You shall have to be extremely patient, compromising and strike a balance at any cost. Maintaining peace and harmony at your home will be solely your responsibility. Hence, you have to control variations in mood and handle situations with a great deal of maturity. The root of improved relationship in your married life will be inner-confidence, contentment, and balance of mind. If you make the first move towards reconciliation she will do the rest.

The seventh house of marriage falls in the Gemini sign. The Twins is the symbol assigned to Gemini. Mercury is the ruling planet for Gemini and Air is the element. Wednesdays are said to be lucky days for Gemini. Jovial, good communication skills, inquisitiveness and flexibility are all strengths of the Gemini. Weaknesses of the Gemini include selfishness, restlessness, confusing personalities and difficulty being on time.

The Twins, which is the symbol of the Gemini, is said to be the child of the Zodiac. Gemini will have multiple personalities. Gemini changes their minds often. Boredom quickly makes a Gemini turn and look for other avenues of excitement and entertainment.

Gemini has little to no patience. They do not flourish in environments where indecisive people are present. Gemini can talk themselves in and out of a situation all in the same breath. They do not stay in one place too long. In most disagreements, Gemini will come out the victor with an extraordinary ability to use words in their favor.

Falling in love with a Gemini can be exciting. With their dual personalities Gemini keeps their love life spicy. In matters of the heart, hang on tight because you are in for an ever-changing ride. Don't hold them to a time schedule as something can catch their eye and cause them to be late in a heartbeat.

The Gemini girl has multiple sides to her personality and all she wants is a guy who will be compatible with all of them! She loves the phase of being in love from the stolen glances to the flirty innuendoes, she is totally involved. There are no half measures for this feisty female; she may flirt and tease, but likelihood of her being unfaithful is meager. As long as she feels an equal commitment from her mate, and an understanding of her Twin opposing needs of freedom and security, she will be a loyal partner. What the choosy Gemini gal is looking for is an ally for her irreverent escapades someone who can be alternately nutty and sane. Unpredictability and adventure find favor with this girl. Constantly geared up to expand her horizons, she can entertain her mate with witty tales and non-stop chatter. Blessed with a brilliant sense of humor, this girl usually makes for an easygoing, social and extremely articulate companion. Actually, the Gemini female is on an incessant quest for knowledge, so she makes sure to fill her life with varied activities and friends. People-watching may be a hobby for her.

Mercury is in the ninth house. The ninth house basically covers matters related to your level of luck, interest in religion & spirituality and level of morality. This house is also called as the house of fate and destiny. This house signifies the father, luck, spiritual tendencies, devotion, learning, pilgrimages and association with religious people. In modern context this house indicates events management, show business, long distance trips, jobs in voluntary organizations, charity, social network, global connections and jobs in multinational companies. Mercury in the ninth house energizes these locations of your life.

Mercury in the ninth house brings prosperity and good fortune after getting married. This is also favorable for getting married through dating and matrimonial web portals.

2. Good periods for love:

As per your chart you are under the influence of the major and sub-period of Ketu during 10 December 2015 to 8 May 2016.

Ketu in astrology is not praised for love and harmony in relationships.

This period brings mixed results in your love and married life. You have to be calm and focused in personal life that you could be able to communicate and express your love effectively during this period.

The key in a strong relationship, though, is not to be fearful of conflict. You need to be safe to express things that bother you without fear of retaliation, and be able to resolve conflict without humiliation, degradation or insisting on being right. Create a safe environment where you can trust and share openly without being afraid. Channel the energy of your emotions so that you say what you need to say in a constructive manner.

This is suggested during this period your best bet is not to rush into a committed relationship if you are unsure about someone trustworthiness or integrity. As much as you love someone, you need to weigh how well the relationship fits with your greater goals. Do you feel destabilized by this person? Or, on the other hand, is the connection all about practical matters and lacking in passion? You may need more balance. You should avoid long term commitment during this period.

You will be under the influence of the sub-period of Venus from 9 May 2015 to 7 July 2016.

Venus is the ruling planet of the sixth and eleventh house.

The sixth house of the horoscope represents the diseases, enemies, opposition, disputes, legal cases, loss, accident, stamina to fight back, success in competitive exams, difficulties, struggle, maternal uncle, loans, service to others, contract, domestic pets and body part: waist. This house basically covers matters related to your enemies, health problems, debts, obstructions and service to others.

The eleventh house is the house of gains, titles and honors one obtains in his life. Period (period) of the eleventh lord brings wealth, status in society, one gets good position and good results in studies. It also represents the elder brothers and sisters, business profits and financial prospects. Body Part: Left Ear and Legs. This house basically covers matters related to your name-fame, gains and inflows from various sources.

Venus is in the ninth house.

The ninth house basically covers matters related to your level of luck, interest in religion & spirituality and level of morality. This house is also called as the house of fate and destiny. This house signifies the father, luck, spiritual tendencies, devotion, learning, pilgrimages and association with religious people. In modern context this house indicates events management, show business, long distance trips, jobs in voluntary organizations, charity, social network, global connections and jobs in multinational companies.

This period will energize these locations of your life.

This period brings mixed results in your love and married life. You shall have to be more accommodating and understanding in your love life. You must be willing to accept your partner for all her foibles and shortcomings. You shall have to be extremely patient, compromising and strike a balance at any cost. Maintaining peace and harmony at your home will be solely your responsibility. Hence, you have to control variations in mood and handle situations with a great deal of maturity. The root of improved relationship in your married life will be inner-confidence, contentment, and balance of mind.

The matters of the heart require patience and understanding, and haste and inflexibility is best to be avoided. As you get some alone time this year, use it to appreciate and imbibe the fact that a marriage/relationship has a lot more to it than just the honeymoon period. Responsibilities, trust, adjustments, sacrifices are all a part of this package. When one is blinded by love, these things may not be apparent, but they are always there. The reality does surface sooner or later. So, think before you leap. Weigh your options, bide your time and give some more thought to a current relationship. Even if all looks well, which will be excellent, still let some time elapse before you say 'I Do!'.

3. Good periods for marriage/chances of marriage, if not married:

Love and marriage prospects will be good during the following period of planets:

8 May 2015-7 July 2016.

Transit of Jupiter in Cancer which is the eighth house indicates changes in personal and professional life. Career prospects will be good.

Then the transit of Jupiter on the ninth house from July 2015 will be favorable for enhancing your knowledge base and to be associated with group of people.

Transit of Saturn on your twelfth house from the ascendant and the ninth house from Moon is also favorable for growth in career.

4. Suggestions for success in love and marriage:

You may see occasional differences with your lover or partner or spouse.

Since no birth chart is entirely free from such afflictions, you will need to handle your love life and marital life with some care and attention to keep it as mutually enjoyable as possible.

You will do well to remain fair and square in your thoughts and actions and opt for frank dialogue in case you face any issue.

Flexibility and adjustment should be the key for a better marital life.

Try to spend more time with your lover or spouse and take all important decisions after mutual discussion.

In case you are yet to marry, make sure to match both horoscopes in details.

You will be highly susceptible to the charm of the opposite sex and thus it is important to take care to avoid getting entangled in needless complications before or after marriage.

5. Remedies:

1. Distribute sweets along the poor children on Tuesdays.
2. Feed red colored fruits/vegetables to monkeys.
3. Feed sweets to children on every Tuesday.
4. Feed 8 sweet breads (rotis) baked only from one side to the dogs.
5. You should take care of a widowed/deserted woman.
6. Worship God on Tuesday.
7. Eat sweet food on Tuesday and food should be without salt.

8. While boiling milk, make sure that it does not boil out of the vessel.
9. Give some donation to the orphanage on Tuesday.

Respect Priests/Teachers

Worship God on Thursday

Donate yellow clothes to your priest. Donate 600 grams of gram pulses at a religious place for 6 continuous days beginning from the Thursday.

Donate yellow fruits and pulses

Feed the birds in the early morning

Help people in need

Donate books and teach poor children

Give some donation to voluntary organizations/schools

Go for pilgrimage if not possible then visit to a place of worship on Thursday and spend some time there

Chant Mantra (prayers)

Avoid gossiping/back biting

Make long term investments

Do not consume alcohol/non-vegetarian food

Respect your parents and elderly people

Give donation in hospitals

Sleep with your head pointing towards south.

Perform some social work or community service voluntarily.

Perform all the rituals and ceremonies time to time.

Keep faith in your destiny and do not take any donations nor help from elderly people.

Clean the area where you pray regularly. Keep rain water in your house.

Do not let dirty water get clogged around your house.

Do not give false testimony.

Hanging a square silver piece on the door of your house will be favorable for you.

Be a perfect host to the guests.

Remedies for early marriage:

1. Wear new clothes during marriage talks.

2. If you are short of good proposals wear yellow clothes on Thursday and white clothes on Friday. If these clothes are new, that better. Do it for 4 weeks and you will surely get good proposals. However, no cloth should be repeated.

3. If marriage negotiation is breaking down repeatedly after reaching final stages, make it a point to put off shoes/slippers before entering the room where talks are taking place.

4. At the moment when bride side is entering prospective groom household, girl parents and other well-wishers should put left or right foot first inside the house, keeping in mind the nostril from which they are breathing.

5. When the parents go for marriage negotiation to groom house, girl should keep her hair open, not tie them. She should also be happy and offer sweets to them when they start.

Part Two:

Further breakup of the year 2016, to focus on more trends

January 2016:

This month brings mixed results. Healthy relationships are built on give and take. If you expect to get what you want 100% of a time in a relationship, you are setting yourself up for disappointment. Healthy relationships are built on compromise, and it takes work on each person's part to make sure that there is a reasonable exchange. During this month you might find yourself getting a little obsessive. If things have gotten a little complicated in your love life, you need to listen to each other without interrupting or taking things personally. With lots of patience, you can get to the other side of a sticking point now. This is the time to really connect on a deeper level instead of getting swept away by good looks and charm. The root of improved relationship will be inner-confidence, contentment, and balance of mind.

February 2016:

Strong, matured and healthy relationship can be one of the best supports in your life. This is the time to recognize what's important to your partner. Pay attention to what makes your partner happy, interests, and be careful not to take actions that will restrict that happiness. Knowing what is truly important to your partner can go a long way towards building goodwill and an atmosphere of compromise. It's equally important for your partner to recognize your wants and for you to state clearly. Remember good communication is a fundamental part of a healthy relationship. When people stop communicating well, they stop relating well, and times of change or stress can really bring out disconnect. As long as you are communicating, you can work through whatever problem you are facing. A little humor and playful interaction can go a long way in relieving tense situations and helping you see the brighter side.

March 2016:

You shall be dealing with some challenges and changes in your professional life. Your career and social life continue to keep you busy, barely leaving time for romance. While it can be tough at times, with the right boundaries and direct communication, you will both become closer in the end. It's possible that you or your romantic partner could be kept apart due to work or family obligations. Fortunately, Skype and other video chat options are plentiful make this happen.

April 2016:

This month brings mixed results to your love life. You may not feel quite satisfied with your partner. You may assume that your partner has a pretty good idea of what you are thinking and what you need. Remember your partner is not a mind reader. While your partner may have some idea, it is much healthier to directly express your needs to avoid any confusion. Getting in the habit of expressing your needs helps you weather difficult times, which otherwise may lead to increasing resentment, misunderstanding, and anger. You are advised to follow a more reconciliatory approach, where you don't clash with your partner.

May 2016:

Approach towards love, romance and life in general will be encouraging during this month. Honest, direct communication could be a key part of your relationship now. When both partners feel comfortable expressing their needs, fears, and desires, trust and bonds are strengthened. The foundation for a thriving, growing, mutually-supportive relationship is to be separate and connected. In co-dependent relationships, each person sacrifices part of him/her self, compromising the relationship as a whole.

June 2016:

This month is favorable. You may get romantic and show the one you desire most that she is special to you. Having a loving partner can be incredibly exciting since it involves plenty of opportunities to spend time with someone you like. However, for many couples, it can be hard to find things to do without quickly going broke! Rather than get stuck going out to dinner or lavishing each other with expensive gifts to show your love, consider some of the many interesting ways to spend time with your girlfriend that are inexpensive (or free!), and create quality memories.

July 2016:

A beautiful transit of planets is favorable to initiate more love and romance in your love life. You will be generous and affectionate to your partner. This enables you to show your love in many different and unique ways. Being generous involves being giving of yourself, but it also means being accepting of what's given to you. Be sure to show appreciation, even when gifts and acknowledgment are hard for you to receive. When it comes to the natural give and take in a relationship, it's important not to keep score. Being generous will make you feel warmly toward your partner and good about yourself, two elements that keep the spark alive.

August 2016:

You have to be calm and focused in personal life that you could be able to communicate and express your love effectively. The key in a strong relationship, though, is not to be fearful of conflict. You need to be safe to express things that bother you without fear of retaliation, and be able to resolve conflict without humiliation, degradation or insisting on being right. Create a safe environment where you can trust and share openly without being afraid. Channel the energy of your emotions so that you say what you need to say in a constructive manner.

September 2016:

For your relationship to be and remain juicy and wonderful, like every living thing, it must be fed and fueled. After you take care of yourself, your relationship deserves to be your next priority, since it is the very relational foundation on which all that all else lies. It needs to be tended to, nurtured and revitalized to keep romance alive and evolving. Small steps, like holding hands and making eye contact, are easy to overlook in the face of busy schedules and responsibilities, but they can be key to keeping love exciting.

October 2016:

This month indicates ups and down in a love relationship. Love life may require more attention and care. It will be difficult to cope with partner. There will be off and on conflicts in a love relationship. Conflict is inevitable in any relationship, but to keep a relationship strong, both people need to feel they have been heard. The goal is not to win but to resolve the conflict with respect and love. You shall have to learn how to respectfully resolve conflict. Spend quality time recovering, resolving and learning from any conflict that may arise. You should strive to maintain appropriate balance between professional and personal life during this month.

November 2016:

This month helps you with making amends. Make a concerted effort to release resentment, blame, and expectations. Although a certain someone may not have lived up to your standards, turn your focus to gratitude. What does s/he provide for your life that you love and adore? Appreciation is like high-octane fuel for your love tank. Do you want to be acknowledged for anything?

Sometimes, you have to come out and ask for the props you deserve. Your honey may simply be too distracted to notice, but you don't have to linger on in this whole taking each other for granted abyss. Overall, you need more playtime and celebration this month.

December 2016:

This month is good for romance to be flourishing and your feelings are expanded. You should enjoy and delve into your emotional and artistic outlets. You will be in the mood for a vacation fling, parties, fun dates, or moving around with a loved one. A flirtation could turn into a full-scale affair. You will have no problem attracting admirers or igniting the spark with your current love. Traveling together or finding other ways to expand and grow as a couple is the key of a successful relationship. Although you have a tendency to prefer being mysterious, open communication can be the key of success.
