Detailed description of Mars in 10th house considering the sign & house position & the time slot during which these results would manifest in life:

- Your ascendant is Libra and Mars in your birth chart is located in the 10th house in Cancer sign.
- Being in the 10th house, Mars attains very high digbala (directional strength) and hence he becomes very active to offer and promote positive results, especially those related to the 10th house of career and actions.

- However since his residential strength is restricted to 79%, his digbala effects cannot reach 100%.
- Further, Mars is highly inauspicious, especially in career chart, and thus good effects will be further restricted.

Due to location in the 10th house, Mars gives you executive ability of high order, capacity for leadership and as a result of these you get to attain much prosperity.

- You will have inexhaustible energy, capacity to win over obstacles, hindrances and impediments, and to gain and retain authority.
- On the flip side, this 10th house location of Mars, runs the risk of making you over confident at times and less aware of your immediate environment.
- This can lead to hurried and hence imperfect speech and decision making.

Due to Mars's location in Cancer sign, you will be grossly lacking in self-control, will foster suppressed anger and will be very much inclined to speculation.

- You will also be highly covetous, needlessly competitive and assertive.
- Your wit can be quite biting and you can be notably rash on several occasions.
- Further Mars is located opposite to Moon, the disposition of Mars and hence they become naturally inimical.
- Hence sudden and hasty decisions should be avoided as they may not be very sound most of the time.

The above effects will be effective throughout life but will be especially effective and noticeable during the main and sub periods of Mars.

- As per your chart, main period of Mars is already over on 27 December 1974.
- During the current 5 years period till 15 July 2022, you will go through main period of Saturn and sub periods of Venus, Sun, Moon and Mars.
- During other main periods, the sub period of Mars will operate during 27 June 2036 to 24 June 2037.

Analysis of navamsa and dasamsa charts:

Navamsa chart D9:

- Ascendant is Capricorn while its lord Saturn is placed in the 11th house of gain, but very adversely conjunct with debilitated Rahu. Thus gains promised by Saturn may not be realized due to sudden adverse effects of Rahu.
- Saturn is also the main period lord and cannot offer good results for above reasons. Further Mars, the disposition of Saturn, is the planet of obstruction for Capricorn ascendant and thus effects of Saturn main period will be further affected downwards in general while the sub period of Mars will offer mainly obstructive and negative effects.
- Due to effects of Mars, the obstructions originating from colleagues (Mars) will have chance to sour professional relationships and then proceed to affect career.

- Additionally adverse aspect of Mars on Venus in the 12th house will cause loss through unreliable associations and the consequent sudden excitement can push you to wrong actions and you may lose sense of propriety. This can affect career, professional relationship and all other related matters.

Dasamsa chart D10:

- Ascendant is Capricorn, while Saturn, lord of ascendant, is in the 4th house opposite career house and in debilitation sign and in the center of the nodal axis, all negatives.
- Mars is very ill placed with Sun and suffers from strong Papa Kartari yoga between Saturn and Rahu and thus offers more negative effects in career than in other areas of life.
- This is a highly challenging and negative situation that can cause many confusing, challenging and obstructive situations, especially career and also in other life events. These will need very mature handling, for good results.

Comments on shadbala:

- Mars has high overall strength and digbala (hence he is capable for promoting good results).
- However since his residential strength is restricted to 79%, his digbala effects cannot reach 100%.
- Further, Mars is highly inauspicious, especially in career chart, and thus good effects will be further restricted.
- Thus the good results of Mars will depend on clarity of your thoughts and propriety of your actions.
- Steady focus on these areas are essential to utilize the good effects elsewhere in your chart.

Aspects that are cast on the planet & aspects that the planet casts, their effects and results

- Mars gets opposition aspect of Moon from a Saturn's sign (quite adverse) and does not get any aspect from any benefic planet.
- Overall effects on Mars are mixed but more inclined to be negative (exacerbation of negative effects of tendencies to dominate and to get into controversies).
- Mars adversely aspect the ascendant, Moon and also the 4th house of home life from ascendant and the 2nd house of family and wealth from Moon sign, and tries to cause restrictions on good results in these areas.

Interpretations of dasa /antardasa for the period of ordered report:

(In case no dasa or antardasa is operational during the order period then pratyantardasa of this planet for the period)

- During the current 5 years period till 15 Jul 2022, you will go through main period of Saturn and sub periods of Venus, Sun, Moon and Mars.
- None of the sub period lords are placed in favorable manner with respect to the main period lord, Saturn.
- Thus there is no mutual support between main and various sub periods.

Saturn-Venus period till 17 December 2018:

- Main period lord Saturn good strength and digbala and he is a yoga karaka for your ascendant Libra but Saturn is square to Jupiter and opposite to Mercury, and also gets very adverse aspect of Rahu in your birth chart D1.

- Thus Saturn can offer only mixed results of average quality.
- Sub period lord Venus is highly ill placed in 6:8 locations from Saturn, very contradictory and hence negative in effects.
- Individually Venus has nearly zero digbala and hence she is highly inactive for offering or promoting good results.

Till 27 October 2017, transit Saturn is in 2nd house from ascendant (negative) and in the 11th house from natal Moon (positive).

- After 27 Oct 2017 Transit Saturn is positive in the 3rd house from ascendant but is very negative moving over Ketu, while transit Saturn in the 12th house from Moon is negative. Overall transit Saturn gives mixed but mainly negative effects.
- Transit Jupiter is positive from both ascendant and from Moon. Transit Rahu is negative from after 22 Aug 2017. Overall all transit effects are mixed and average like the period lords. Till 27 Oct 2017 career will remain much disturbed.

- Mars sub period will cause more problems in career than doing anything good. Seniors will totally dislike your attitude with colleagues and will not support you any longer.
- Transit Jupiter will help but this alone will not be enough. You will need to change your outlook and control your attitude. More tolerance and practical sense will be necessary.
- Only stubbornness of mind will not do. No progress in career will be possible and change of job will be ruled out. Threat to career is possible too.
- You will fail to bring any meaningful change if you do not change things from your side. Career, finance, social and domestic life and children will remain stagnant without any relief.
- This period demands early understanding and resolution of your issues at career, finance and in your home life.

Do's and Don't's

- Maintain clarity and propriety of thoughts and actions. You should stay grounded, principled and disciplined in all your thoughts and actions.

- Try hard to improve communication gap or failure and thus improve your communication. This is very important since you may take actions [apparently practical] that will make you a poor manager of opportunities and wealth, and thus you will lose or waste your chances and your money and may invite displeasure of others and other problems.
- Avoid over ambition, inclination to dominate, avoid haste, over confidence and showy behavior. Avoid making commitments if you are not sure of being able to honor them. Do not expect any real respect, help or even suggestions or cooperation from anybody on any matter, if you cannot follow the above line of action.
- Do not act in overriding manner. Do not expect to get more than your dues. Do not overestimate what you are to get as this can lead to troubles. Strictly avoid ego, conceit, arguments, controversies and conflicts or you will face extreme form of restriction everywhere.
- Do not seek help when you can do without it as such action will improve your image. This is also due to the reason that you may be refused any help any way.

Blessings,
Pt. Punarvasu
