PLEASE FIND BELOW THE ANNUAL BIRTHDAY SOLAR RETURN CHART MADE FOR YOU ON THE VEDIC SYSTEM. THIS REPORT WHICH TELLS YOU ABOUT THE COMING YEAR IS CALLED 'VARSHPHAL' ON THE VEDIC SYSTEM.

Nutshell Report for the year - positive or negative.

The Varshaphala Chart is made when the Sun completes it one cycle and comes back to the same position as it was at the time of birth in your birth chart. It focuses on the events of one year that begins from your one birthday to another birthday.

Your birth chart is Aquarius rising with Sun in Libra in the seventh house. This year the rising sign of the Varshaphala Chart is in Capricorn. It is the tenth sign of the natural zodiac and falls in the twelfth house of your birth chart- this gives interpretations as below:

During this period you will have to deal with karmic debts that influence the progress of your spiritual evolution. These tests will be difficult to overcome, and it will be necessary on your part to remain positive and not allow yourself to feel defeated. Since saturn is ruling this year and it is at its full strength thus it gives you success in litigation [if applicable], acquisition of new house or change of residence, land or property, good health, leadership of fellow beings.

Career

During this year you will be more focused on your ambitions and goals. You will also be inclined to look seriously at the work you do. If you are not completely satisfied with it, you will start looking around for something you like better - one that gives you more responsibility and rewards for your efforts.

This could be the year you get a promotion as your superior will see you as a more conscientious and productive employee. Thanks to your conscientious and continuous effort you can achieve everything that you set out to do, but don't expect it all to come easy particularly if your work is related to distant lands or abroad. Then there is possibility to face some challenges – not meeting the expectations- sometimes frustrates you down. Difficulty in expressing yourself leading to destruction of desired wish. Saturn ruling this year forces you more than ever to face reality and your own limitations. If by nature you are not very practical or ambitious, you will have to try harder to make that impression on those in authority and to convince them that you do indeed deserve the respect you are seeking. On the other hand, if you are already hard-working and fairly ambitious, this could be your year to jump up the ladder. In either case, you will have the opportunity to change your life in some significant way provided you work hard and do more than before.

Maturing is the key for this year. You will feel your needs changing, and in spite of an inner resistance, a part of you wants to take on new responsibilities and forge ahead. You probably won't see the entire picture all at once, but it is probable that whatever you undertake now will bring you satisfaction for a long time to come. Now is the time to make the effort and to even sacrifice in order to realize your most important goals. You will probably not get a lot of help from others unless you are willing to do the work.

Relationships with seniors will be generally normal. They will be strict to get results. Your hard work will be appreciated but where or whenever you lose the spirit to work hard there you may suffer the consequences. Changes at work place will disturb your output and you will not be satisfied with it. If you are into any creativity work – things will begin but will not work out well as planned before. With colleagues, you will be disappointed by them. If you are going to lean or relying on them for your work then forget it- they will not be helpful at all though they may appear to help you a lot on the surface. Remember that competition rules first. However, what may go on your sincere effort and serious demeanor this year will help you to overcome the obstacles in undertakings and ensures dominance over opponents. There will be increase in name and fame.

Money

You will give more consideration to your financial situation. However, it will not be easier for you to reach the desired goal. You will become lazy though you wanted to earn more. Expenditures will be high than your income. Some decisions will make you spend more. It will be difficult for you to curb the expenditures. Try to prioritize rather to spend frivolously.

You will try to work hard but could not do so. sudden changes at work place will make you more upset.

Relations

During this period you could be so busy and absorbed with your ambitions that you tend to overlook your emotions. You may become more aloof and not have as much time for socializing. As a consequence, your friends and acquaintances may back away from you, not understanding your new attitude. It is important to allow adequate time for others and not get completely caught up in yourself and your projects. It is also possible to have frictions with some old friends or associates. You will be hurt by their behavior and will retract yourself. Openness in relations will reduce. This will certainly make you more inward. Social activities will be formal rather than friendly. When this year is over, you would find many changes in your relationships.

You might attract emotional persons who could be most beneficial to you now as they may offer you understanding, protection, and support in your endeavors. This year does not leave much time for romance, love and adventure. You will be looking for people who can be your friend and understand the efforts you are making to improve your position in life and earn more money.

Relationship with mother will improve whereas you need to workout to make some improvements in relations with father.

If single, marriage is possible this year.

If married, ego problems will surface up that could be handled patiently. Avoid being aggressive with spouse. However, if not controlled timely then it could take serious turns in marital relation.

Not possibility of birth of child this year.

Disagreement of ideas with others may create unpleasant situations.

Health

During this year, you could experience strong limitations on your freedom, brought about by your past mistakes. The same could apply to problems with health that require rest or confinement and to other problems you encounter with secret enemies who are opposed to your progress.

This influence could bring some problems with your bones and joints. It would be a good time to have your teeth checked and also to pay more attention to the care of your skin, fingernails and hair. Be sure to eat foods that are rich in minerals. There is also a possibility that your new-found ambition could cause you to over-work and become run down, which could result in depression or frustration.

You need to take care of health and injury especially when driving. Possibility of increasing the abdominal or stomach area. Overeating or rich food should be avoided if you have tendency of over weight. This year you should take care against any serious illness, blood disorders, injury from weapons or accidents and there is possibility of surgical operation too.

Travel

This year is little bit mixed where travel is concerned. Your desires will hardly be fulfilled especially to the place where you wish to travel. If you are trying going abroad to settle down or earn a livelihood there, then postpone the idea until your next birthday. Your ideas would not be materialized and even if they are materialized by your strong will power- will not yield much benefit. You will not be benefitted by them.

Travel will increase and possibility to explore new place. Though the plans will be slowly made or with some hiccups. Tiresome journey. Take care of belongings or being short tempered during journey.
