Mahadasa of Venus will cover the year 2016 and beyond till 23 Apr 2032.

This is your 4th Mahadasa and it denotes a trend for prosperity in your chart.

Under this Mahadasa, the sub dasa of Sun operates till 23 Aug 2016 while the sub dasa of Moon will cover the rest of the year 2016 and will stretch till 23 Apr 2018.

2)

Interpretation of all Sub dasa in 2016:

Sub dasa Venus-Sun: [till 23 Aug 2016]

Venus is very well placed in your horoscope in her own sign Libra and conjunct with Mercury and in the 12th house from your ascendant.

However Venus is somewhat weak, being at the center of the nodal axis.

Sun, the lord of your career house from ascendant is very well placed in the house of gain and enjoys the support of Jupiter, but Sun is much afflicted by Saturn.

Thus the period of Venus-Sun will offer you mixed effects.

In career you will do quite well and will be lucky at many points of time.

Progress in career is much expected and this can lead to growth through promotion or change of job, after Aug 2015.

However before or after this growth point you will also face some significant differences with your seniors and you will need to handle these events with your natural eloquence, good judgment and decent demeanor.

Avoid being hasty so that your good intentions and actions are not misunderstood.

You are sure to make good earnings improving over this period while you will need to be more careful about how you handle this money that you earn.

There can be a tendency to spend or invest without much forethought or even self control.

It is better to avoid emotional expenses or investments in risky or speculative areas.

Conservative savings and investments in time tested ways like securities, bonds, life insurance and in mutual funds will bring you good gains.

Investment in real estate should be postponed.

Your sociable nature will remain active but this sub dasa may not much support love or romance.

Some discretion will also be required in choosing the right type of friends.

Otherwise some hurt or disappointments or even financial losses can be possible.

Yet you can easily get married during this period or a little beyond, in case you are not married yet.

Within marital life you will do well to remain reasonable and flexible in a far seeing manner.

Much love and affection will be present from either side but it will be important to take more care of your marital relationship as there can be some disagreements or differences in perceptions, principles or preferences.

Also you will need to strike a balance between your marital and social life.

This is much important at this stage of your life.

You may not get a child born to you in this period but in case you already have children, it will be important to take more than normal care of them as they may not enjoy sufficient good health or good luck.

It is also important to take regular care of your health and that of your spouse since both of you may go through some common functional issues.

*Sub dasa Venus-Moon: [From 24 Aug 2016 till 23 Apr 2018]:

Sub period lord Moon is debilitated and also is quite inauspicious.

Being the lord of the 9th house of fortune, Moon sub period will not support your luck much.

Thus you will need to depend more on your hard efforts in all areas of life to reach a stage of more or less trouble free results.

The events under this sub period will generally be on the lines of the last sub period but success rate can come down.

Career will not get another growth point in this period while obstructions will increase.

Your caution about professional equation with seniors will remain important while you will also need to mend your relationship with peers too at this stage.

Maintain good relation with all at work and be ready for some compromises.

Health issues and many unexpected obstructions will have to be dealt with to maintain a stable career graph.

Period after 2017 will be somewhat better and will pose lesser problems or obstructions but another growth point will not be expected.

Income will increase steadily but you may want it to be faster or more.

Handling of money will remain difficult and you must be ready to meet sudden demands for funds.

Occasional financial stringency is possible but you can handle these with advance planning and self control.

Social life may not be much satisfying or successful.

Marital life will need more care now as differences within marriage and also ill health of spouse are expected.

Childbirth may be further delayed or health of children and of their mother will keep you anxious and make you spend much for them.

Your own health can suffer from common ailments off and on.
