1)

Dasa in operation in the next twenty years [till 10 Sep 2025]:

You will be under the dasa-s of balance of Jupiter-Rahu [till 16 Oct 2015], Saturn-Saturn [17 Oct 2015 to 20 Oct 2018], Saturn-Mercury [21 Oct 2018 to 28 Jun 2021], Saturn-Ketu [29 Jun 2021 to 07 Aug 2022], Saturn-Venus [08 Aug 2022 to 06 Oct 2025], Saturn-Sun [07 Oct 2025 to 18 Sep 2026], Saturn-Moon [19 Sep 2026 to 19 Apr 2028], Saturn-Mars [20 Apr 2028 to 29 May 2029], Saturn-Rahu [30 May 2029 to 03 Apr 2032], Saturn-Jupiter [04 Apr 2032 to 16 Oct 2034] and a part of Mercury-Mercury [17 Oct 2034 to 10 Sep 2035].

Each planet is highly afflicted in varying degrees in your horoscope while Venus, Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn are exceptionally afflicted.

Additionally Jupiter and Saturn are involved in a planetary war [very negative] wherein Saturn is defeated.

Thus at individual or combined level, no planet can adequately protect or promote your life events.

All good events will be subject to availability of favorable transits of planets at any point of time.

2)

Overall effects and prediction of the coming ten years:

You will get fluctuating support of luck but you can sort out problems in most areas of your life or keep them as low as possible despite the fact that the coming twenty years will not be easy to handle and will be fluctuating in nature.

You can move towards success in your endeavors but only with adequate and appropriate determination, alertness and self control.

Career will offer quite a few growth points in your position but some losses too.

Most growth points will occur through change of job.

Increase of income from career and through assets and inheritances will be quite encouraging.

But the rising growth curve of career and income will see many ups and downs within its progress.

Expenses will remain very high most of the time due to wasteful and indiscreet expenses and also through hasty and risky investment decisions.

Particularly expenses through unplanned and possibly unexpected demands on your funds will occur due to sudden negative events during May 2022 to Mar 2025, and also in areas related to your residence, home or any property or to your mother [if applicable] from 2030 to 2032.

Accumulation of money will not be much but with increased calmness and discretion, you can increase it substantially.

Support [especially in finance] from friends and relatives will not be significant and will be especially absent during May 2022 to Mar 2025.

Financial fluctuations will be very prominent due to active and valid presence of Sakata Yoga in your birth chart.

Marriage [if not married now] can be possible during mid 2015 to mid 2016.

Marital life [as and when applicable] will have many issues of differences and disagreements but will get occasional chances for making it better and these opportunities should not be missed.

Otherwise threat to continuity of marital life can develop.

The area of social life and love or romance will offer mixed results and thus happiness through success in matters of romance will come haltingly and may not reach any desired or definable level.

Financial loss through love and romance can occur easily.

Children, if any, may not enjoy much good health or good luck and also may not be consistently obedient to you or cordial with you and may not help you to any significant degree as they grow up.

Health will be basically normal but some issues of general debility, nerve related weakness, decline in masculine vigor and emotional imbalance can occur.

No serious disorder is expected.

3)

Major changes that can be expected in life:

Significant rise in good luck alternating with fall in good luck in career, finance and also in life in general, mixed state of marital life turning sour with major difficulties in home life, unstable power of confidence and analysis, judgment and communication, fluctuation in immediate environments, new and better opportunities for career, higher inflow of earnings through career followed by some points of stagnation and other issues are expected.

Restrictions from superiors at work, lack of vibe with peers, significant but undesired or wasteful expenses and disturbances in marital life can occur often.

Social life will not be very stable or positive and can cause major financial loss.

4)

Opportunities that could come about in this period:

Changes to better jobs or to more important roles in current job and maintaining stability at work will be much possible if you try harder and also maintain an amiable and cooperative image and consistently effective communication.

You will have options to tactfully handle your seniors and colleagues to give you more space and peace at work and also financial gains.

You will get opportunities to cut down your expenses through calmness and discretion and to build up your funds.

5)

Precautions necessary for this period:

The areas that will need specific and sustained attention, relate to attitude at work, control over expenses and readiness to strike a compromising posture with others, especially with spouse and superiors and colleagues at work.

Dependence on own ability, discretion and intelligence and care to avoid or at least minimize failure in judgment and communication will be very important.

You must be cooperative with all to get cooperation.

Stay clear of any controversy at work place with both superiors and colleagues.

Strict care must be taken to shun expenses that can be avoided or can be delayed.

Save every possible amount of money, throughout to avoid sudden dips in finance.

6)

Profession:

Business or self employment is not supported in your horoscope.

Thus you will need to go for employment career only.

Year mid 2015 to mid 2016:

Growth in working career is quite possible though this may not be easy.

If you try harder from now, you can get a better job with better pay but not a higher position.

This is quite possible to occur through a change of job or change of role in your current job during 2015 but is quite likely to spill over to 2016.

Just in case you are not working at the moment, you can get a suitable job along the same time line.

Relocation is not expected with a change of employer till mid 2016.

Significant disagreements with and obstructions from seniors will occur in any job or role, current or new.

Year mid 2016 to mid 2017:

If the change to a better job and change of employer does not occur in the last period, it will occur beyond mid 2016 into this period and in such case relocation is possible but not over long distance.

If you got the growth point in the last period, then the period from mid 2016 to mid 2017 will bring a good rise in your income from job career through a decent hike in pay.

At work this year [and even till Oct 2017] you will not get meaningful support, encouragement and guidance from seniors.

You will also see many restrictions from them on your working style and you may not be always free to exercise your powers or views.

You will need to rise to the expectation of your superiors and must not argue with them and throw away this very rare backing from the top.

Avoid all situations of controversy with colleagues though they can be highly obstructive to your good efforts and progress.

Your image in the eyes of your seniors will certainly go down in case you cannot get along well working with them or your peers since you may not appear to be a good and also obedient subordinate or as a good team person.

In all working situations maintain good communication with all as failure in this area can be easily possible and harmful.

A calm, patient, tolerant and accommodative approach to work will pave the way to further career growth in future.

Year mid 2017 to mid 2018:

This period will have a different tone in career and in life in general but from after Nov 2017 only.

Till such time status quo in career will be maintained.

From Nov 2017, you will face more and stronger differences with seniors and with colleagues.

Such differences will increase by the day and will obstruct peace at work, systematic performance and will obstruct growth possibilities very significantly.

However your luck for stability will hold very well and thus your position will remain very safe and sound and will allow a fair hike in pay despite the prevailing circumstances.

But chance of growth in income or positional progress will not be available.

Year mid 2018 to mid 2019:

You are likely to be shifted to a different area of work.

Alternately you may be able to change your job with somewhat better pay but the problems of working dynamics will not improve in any way in either situation.

Your attitude will be quite negative and you will not even be conscious that you are moving in the wrong direction.

Thus you will take the problems at work to be due to others' fault.

Obviously any thought of need for a course correction from your side will not occur to you and thus such correction will not happen.

You must take care of this and communicate well and in time, and also focus more on actual hard work and not on proving who is right and who is not.

It will be necessary to not take the current incidental stability of your occupation as an achievement or a guarantee.

No progress in position will occur but hike in pay will be possible.

Year mid 2019 to mid 2020:

Till the end of Jan 2020, your career status will not improve.

Your job will be stable and safe but your career will go through the same turbulence as before.

Your professional image will not be high and this will need immediate attention though there will not be any complaint about your performance and targets set for you.

But you will not be seen as a good team person and thus you will need to act proactively to reverse this image so that you can work in safer, peaceful and progressive atmosphere and get scope for progress.

This is very important in this year since your luck will start declining and being irregular and uncertain in this year.

No progress in career position will occur.

Hike in pay may or may not be possible.

Year mid 2020 to mid 2021:

At work your responsibilities will increase much without any commensurate increase in infrastructural support.

You will also not get any clear guidelines in your work while you may not be allowed to use most of your powers.

However your luck will be much better from near Dec 2020 and you will unexpectedly get a change of your area of work where your superiors will be less obstructive and may even be somewhat cooperative.

You will have more freedom at work and this will help you deliver much better.

You will also get appreciation and also a very good hike in your pay.

Relation with colleagues will improve too.

On the flip side, your judgment and communication may not be up to the desired mark and this can create sudden issues that you can avoid with more focus and alertness.

Year mid 2021 to mid 2022:

This is a year when chance of being misunderstood or misinterpreted by others [can be anybody] will be very high.

Your immediate environment at work will not be congenial and this will often put you off.

You may develop a negative mindset and will start looking at every event and every person with doubt and in turn this will misguide you and will keep you stressed out needlessly.

It is necessary that you shake off this attitude and just focus on your work with a positive, hopeful and confident approach.

This is very important since the time after this year and till 2025, your luck will dip again.

If you act as advised, you will soon become relaxed and your performance will get much better.

You will also impress others rather unexpectedly.

You may get a good hike in your pay if you handle things as advised.

Year mid 2022 to mid 2023:

Period from now till 2025 will be yet another very challenging phase.

Most things will happen in most sudden and unexpected manner.

These will include major skirmishes with seniors, colleagues and with even juniors.

You will act in very combative manner and will not spare anyone and will be highly egoistic and over confident.

This attitude will be quite unacceptable even to the people who will normally favor you.

Additionally many personal problems related to your family, finance and personal health will keep you worried and not free to think and act coolly.

As an obvious result, your performance will start declining and growth opportunities will be stalled. It will be essential to remain forewarned and thus forearmed to negotiate through this year. There will be a total stagnancy in career now.

Year mid 2023 to mid 2024:

The career situation will not improve meaningfully in this year.
All existing turmoil will continue but you will retain enough luck to keep your position intact.
Health will not be very fit and this will act against working hard or to meet targets in time.
Thus pressure on you will increase but finally you will deliver quite well.
Yet you will not get any appreciation or reward.
Per se cooperation from everyone will be minimal and most negative events will occur without any notice.
No progress in career position or income will be possible.

Year mid 2024 to mid 2025:

The existing difficulties in career will remain as before till Mar 2025.
You will feel much pressure at work.
From Apr 2025 you will try your best to impress your seniors and will also try for a change of job.
But new job will not be possible at this stage.
In your hurry to do more and better work you will commit some mistakes through inadvertence.
This will invite much criticism and major obstructions from seniors and also from colleagues.
Your sincerity or hard work will not be noted and only negatives will be seen.
You will need to remain very calm and collected through this year.
No amount of talk or explanation will be accepted but the situation will not indicate a loss of job.
Take utmost care to maintain good health and clear communication with all.
No hike or a modest hike in pay may be possible.

7)

Relationship:

All forms of relationships will need very prudent and consistently focused handling during these years since planetary support to this area will be of mixed nature.
Some planets will encourage better bonding and even romantic or love related relationships, while other planets will not be adequately supportive of love or romance [or even professional relationships] while their negative influences will be balanced occasionally the former planets but in inconsistent manner.
Thus marital relationship cannot be improved and this area should be actively pursued to reach a safer and better level.
Conjugal life will have plenty of issues related to ego clashes, differences and disagreements.
Sex life too will suffer much.
The period from Jan 2020 to Mar 2025 will be highly critical and can even bring separation or divorce.
Only sensible actions from now onwards can build the bridge but the regularity of various flare ups will work against it most of the time.
This calls for self control and dialogue within your domestic life as otherwise things can go out of your hands.
A disturbed and highly charged up marital equation can adversely affect your attitude and performance at work.
Various and frequent demands for funds from your spouse will weigh on you heavily and you will mix up various issues in your mind and hence may not be able to guide any fruitful dialogue for peace at home.
Occasional favorable periods should be used to improve your marital life.
In social life you will see many occasions where people, mostly females, will be much attracted to you.
But most of these may suddenly slow down or get aborted due to reasons not connected with love [viz attitude issues, change of job with relocation or family or health issues].

Though you may have a quite active social life, it is necessary and better to focus on permanent relationships like marital life.

With your intelligence and the support of positive planets you can do this easily.

After Mar 2025 marital relationship and equation will see a progressive improvement [if applicable] but only to decline again sharply from Apr 2030.

Thus with advance knowledge of all these possibilities and your own intelligent and timely proactive handling, you can keep your marriage within reasonable and safe limits.

In social life you will see many attractive associations during 2018 to 2020, Feb 2028 to Apr 2030 and during May 2032 to Jul 2034, you will see many old or new relationships in social life and matters of love and romance can quickly develop.

Yet it will be advisable that you pay more attention to long term relationships than short term happiness or enjoyments.

It is important to remember that you may have to spend much money due to your romantic relationships.

In career too you can maintain positive and gainful relationships with all provided you ignore any criticism, restriction or obstruction from others, especially from seniors and offer them cooperation with a smile.

However relationship with own children, if applicable, may not get much better and may gradually become colder.

8)

Remedies:

Meditate or pray regularly.

Keep east side windows and doors of your residence open for as long as possible.

Offer water to Sun God every morning, facing east and after full bath.

Chant "Om Durgaoii Namah" as frequently as possible, the more the better.

Even silent chanting will do.

Keep fast during evenings and nights of all Saturdays.

Sleep with your head towards the South direction.

Best Regards,
