RECOMMENDED GEM STONE:

Emerald:

Wear a good quality Emerald [Panna] of deep drown [minimum 750mg gem weight].

Choose a flawless gem of good quality and of oval cut.

Set this in a ring of alloy of silver and lead [equal measures] or only in a silver ring with bottom open in either case.

Bottom of the ring should be open and the gem should be able to touch your skin very well.

Wear this on the little finger of your right hand.

Wear this on any Wednesday within one hour from sunrise, after dipping it over night in fresh milk and then washing with pure water.

Career:

Till the end of 2010, you may not see any improvement in career or in situations at work.

Differences with superiors are possible.

2011 will give you a sharp change towards improvement of career but the improvement will not be anything big immediately.

This tendency may even start during Apr 2011 but while you should take such events or opportunities seriously, you should not expect them to occur or to develop into something tangible at this stage, even if they occur.

2011 will indicate a growth point in career and likely to develop into any change of job.

Most possibly you may be promoted but kept under probation.

Alternately you may be given higher responsibilities with a good hike in your pay.

At this stage it may not be a regular or complete promotion.

This status [either of the two] will hold through 2011 and will be regularized during end of 2011 when you will either be regularized into a promoted rank or you will be completing your probation if promotion had occurred.

Throughout 2010 and 2011 you will have problems with your superiors at work on various grounds.

Your freedom of movement, power and authority will remain under many restrictions.

You will not get any immediate rewards or even appreciations for your hard work.

It is a time of much perseverance and patience and not one of scattering your energy frivolously.

Finance:

Good rise in pay during 2010 and 2011.

Savings will grow during both 2010 and 2011 but more so during 2011.

Investments will bring only modest benefits during 2010 but excellent ones during 2011.

Avoid speculation, gambling and other dissolute expenses throughout.

You will not be popular in opposite sex at this stage.

Social life may remain barely active, with more or less no enjoyments or satisfaction through women friends.

However some smoothening can be possible during 2011 provided you are ready to work towards it.

Mutual attraction and appreciation will not be noticed much.

Spouse will have indifferent health as you too will do.

Sex life will not be active during 2010 but given a chance it may revive during 2011.

Children (if applicable):

If you have any child, they will face a weak run of health and fortune.

You will dote on them and will do everything that can help them.

They will do well in studies etc despite ill health.

If you are looking for a child now, there cannot be any scope for it at this stage.

Health:

Indifferent health.

Common functional ailments.

Take care of digestive issues promptly.

06 Aug 2011 to Dec 2012: Part of Saturn-Venus.

Career:

Good trend at work will continue in your higher position.

You will enjoy some relaxation of the various restrictions that were operative in the last period.

You will manage to have no confrontation yet the equation with superiors will not be very dependable.

Continue to keep them and also your colleagues, in good humor.

Hard work must be persisted with for more gains after 2011.

Finance:

Increase in income is seen at this stage.

Good investment of finance will be possible.

Avoid over confidence and invest in conventional or conservative modes only.

Healthy finance is seen.

Love Life:

Social life will not develop though you may be more acceptable to women friends now.

Love or romance may possible.

Marital Life:

Some betterment of marital life is possible.

But this will need your active support.

Chance of resumption of sex life is seen.

Children:

Children, if applicable, will not do well in health even now.

But this will not affect their study or performance.

You will be expecting more from them but that will not happen.

Health:

More or less stable health.

Some functional ailments will occur.
