

Foundation Pillars Horoscope

Dear ABC,

THANKS FOR CHOOSING <http://www.indastro.com/>

We have been providing astrology consultation and advice on true vedic principles on the internet since 2000 and serviced over a million customers with our free and premium services. We have prepared Foundation Pillar Horoscope 10 years report:

Any horoscope is founded on four basic pillars that act as the fulcrums of most of the important events of our lives.

These four pillars are the ascendant, the 4th house, the 7th house and the 10th house.

A].

Role of Ascendant:

It is the 1st house of a horoscope and denotes the self, stature, health, general wellbeing, vitality, vigor, nature, temperament, disposition, personality and success and failure in efforts.

The Ascendant indicates the traits that the individual is inclined to be striving to.

This is the most personal part of the horoscope.

Role of 4th house:

It denotes mother, residence, property, education, and happiness, peace of mind, comforts and general welfare. This is the area of our deepest concern for security and shelter.

This is concerned with home, traditions, stability, and nurturing. This is where one seeks comfort and protection. One's activities here will be private and concealed.

Role of 7th house:

It denotes spouse, partner, marriage, family relationships, business partner, and relation with public, marital happiness, sexual desires, travels abroad, diplomacy and honor in another country, business tact, general happiness, general prosperity and cure of disease.

The personal tone of the houses 1 through 6, relate to interaction with others through the 7th house.

It suggests how one relates to the nearest ones.

This house is sometimes called the house of partnerships and marriage.

Role of 10th house:

This house denotes occupation, position, status, honor, dignity, respect, power, and travel to other countries, father and Karma.

B].

Rating of each pillar in order of strength and suggestions about which one of them [self, home, spouse or career] should be the most important.

From the point of view of inherent potential as indicated by your horoscope, the houses 1st, 10th, 4th and the 7th houses have gradually reducing potential.

Thus the 1st house [ascendant] is the most potent house while the 7th house has comparatively the least potential.

At the present stage of your life you should consider the 10th house to be the most important and it must receive your maximum attention, followed by the 7th, 4th and the 1st in this order.

Due to several astrological reasons, the order of importance required by various houses is different from the order of their own strength.

C].

Areas to be prioritized and areas not to be prioritized:

Here we talk about the following areas after taking note of your age and station in life:

Whether work or marriage should be more important:

The area of work should have more priority over marriage or marital life, while the area of marital life or marriage should not be overlooked in any way.

This is due to the fact that though the 10th house is stronger in an overall manner, yet at this specific stage of your life, it deserves and should get one last push to develop your career as much as possible before you can call it a day.

This is despite the fact or may be even due to the fact, that major transits will soon become progressively more and more difficult for advancement of career.

However career will still have its few own moments of glory that must not be passed over.

All direct or even indirect attention to career will bring more benefits to you.

The house of marriage being a secondary house of career, attention to either of them will be mutually complementary.

b)

Whether home or work should be more important:

Work should be more important [despite the 4th house being weaker] purely on the most fundamental and practical logic that sustenance is more important than every other thing [home or anything else].

The 4th houses from ascendant or Moon are quite afflicted but the 10th houses of career [from ascendant or Moon] have much stronger blemishes and demands more attention.

Since the planetary afflictions cannot be removed, more attention to work will help to tone down this glitch and will indirectly improve home life [opposite to career house], peace of mind and will also improve your performance at work.

c)

Whether spouse or family should be more important:

At this stage of your life, you need to take at least some care of all [who may be dependent on you in some way or the other] and carry all of them with you.

Your spouse can be a very useful helping hand in doing this, as your life partner and as a very important member of the family.

Though the overall family should be more important, you should not reduce the importance and space due to your spouse.

d)

Whether self-development or work and family should be more important:

Self development is a continuous process and cannot be overlooked at any stage of life.

As is seen from your birth chart and the ruling periods and transits, the coming years of your life may offer you some scope for it and may provide some useful returns from any possible efforts in this direction.

Such efforts will not adversely affect your family life.

While it is always prudent to make truly focused and continuous use of the skills that you already have, you should also make efforts to upgrade your skills and qualifications to remain competitive in your career.

These will indirectly benefit your family.

D].

Brief predictions for 10years:

General progress in each pillar:

First House:

Till 14 Jul 2015, your self confidence, mental agility and capacity to put in harder efforts will increase. Your actions will be imaginative, intelligent and intuitive. You will be able to extract better cooperation from others and gain from them. Failure rates or delays in all undertakings will come down and you will be more and more acceptable to others. But this status may not remain equally effective after the above date. After 14 Jul 2015 to 15 Jul 2016 you will gradually have more ego and even pride. You will need to feel more and more important, will radiate over confidence, will have showy and rather commanding behavior and will prefer to move in higher circles. Yet some of the good things mentioned above will continue to happen, but at a reduced degree. From mid Jul 2016 to mid Jul 2017, you will start taking to one extreme or the other of any issue and will always refuse to be on the middle of the road. This attitude will make you take many wrong decisions and beneficence of transit Jupiter will be lost. But this year can also bring love or add new energy to your love life yet these will fade away after giving you some pleasurable moments of indulgence. 2017-2018 may bring up your luck, your capacity of good judgment, improve your perceptions and will promote very determined but truly healthy actions. Your intellectual capacity will be very high and sharp and will bring you many positives. 2018-2019 will be much supportive of everything related to home life and career. It will give you growth avenues but will not fix any target. It will be up to you to maintain the balance on what and how you want to achieve. On the flip side, 2018-2019 will also give you dangerously high degree of over confidence, much conceit, accentuated sexuality and a weak health status. 2020-2021 will be quite negative in most matters, especially in matters of health, finance, sex life and in all important deals. 2022 to 2024 will bring many forced changes in life and these will need cool and circumspect handling. Except during the period from 27 Oct 2017 to 25 Jan 2020, transit Saturn will not support your good efforts or your good luck while he can easily misguide you and instigate you to take a wrong stands or routes in any matter and thus get you into sufferings, failures, loss of friends, denial of growth, loss of money and above all loss of peace of mind, prestige and good health. On the whole you will see both challenges and opportunities during these ten years and you must summon all your experiences and your best abilities and judgments to have the right sense and gut feeling at the right time, to take the right track and make gains. Just stay truly grounded with your eyes wide open. Act with due diligence, patience and fairness. Strictly avoid short cuts, everywhere.

Fourth House:

The 4th houses from ascendant and also from Moon are basically afflicted. Differences, oppositions and confrontations within your home will be quite active till 30 Jan 2016, especially from 03 Nov 2014 and these may not reduce much even after 30 Jan 2016 and will continue till 27 Oct 2017 when this status will start being somewhat moderated till 30 Sep 2019. This will happen due to transit of Rahu in the 4th house from Moon [Virgo] till 30 Jan 2016 and transit Saturn's aspect on the 4th house from ascendant from 03 Nov 2014 to 27 Oct 2017. These problems at home will never be entirely eliminated and you will be required to take due and possible care of your home life.

Health of mother, if applicable, will remain a concern though to a reduced degree till 14 Jul 2015 and from mid Jul 2016 to mid Jul 2017 but may increase during in between periods and till Sep 2024.

Level of domestic comforts will not improve to the degree that you may look for and expenses towards home or residence or to any property may increase from 03 Nov till 27 Oct 2017.

Property matters can be quite tricky till this date and also later during 2020 to 2024.

Avoid going for purchase, sale or mortgage of any property except during period till 14 Jul 2015 and from mid Jul 2016 to mid Jul 2017 and during 2020 to 2024.

Seventh House:

This house has significant afflictions in your birth horoscope.

If you are not married at this point of time and are interested to get married, marriage may have a chance to occur during mid 2015 and mid 2016.

During these ten years, events of your 7th house will be of mixed nature.

These will be much more on the positive side during mid 2015 to mid 2016 and during 2017-2018 but will be average or somewhat disturbed during intervening periods and especially during 2020-2021.

All relationships will clearly improve during 2022 to 2024, subject to the basic trend of your horoscope.

In the coming years transit Jupiter will specifically help you to improve all your relationships while transit Saturn will sternly oppose such positivity.

You will need to intelligently use these opposing effects to your advantage.

Overall relation with spouse and even with those at work will be basically disturbed, troubled and at the best they will be quite frosty.

You can get good cooperation and support if and only if your own approach to them is positive, tolerant, logical and rational.

You will need to consciously strive to do this.

Especially during mid 2015 to mid 2016, during 2018-2019 and during 2020-2021 you will need to maintain a flexible attitude in all associations and relationships to make better use of the planetary transits, especially of Jupiter.

Avoid being stubborn or egoistic and take the path of compromise, both with spouse or partner and also at work place, since transit Saturn will create obstructions in marriage, marital life or at work.

Take all important decisions after discussion with your spouse though it is not necessary that you do whatever he says.

This approach will help your relationships with spouse.

Tenth house:

Main period of Venus and sub periods of Venus, Sun, Moon, Mars, Rahu and Jupiter will be on till 30 Sep 2024. Since all these planets are quite afflicted in various ways, they do not promote or protect your life events including career.

Your transit chart is comparatively better and offers some support to career, though not in any consistent manner. Till 02 Nov 2014 transit Saturn will be negatively placed in the 5th house from Moon and in the 9th house from your ascendant.

No progress in career is possible in this period.

You should be careful about your judgment and be especially cautious about anything in your work that may have some legal implications.

During 03 Nov 2014 to 27 Oct 2017, transit Saturn will be in your career house from ascendant [mixed results] while he will be in the 6th house from your Moon [very positive].

Transit Jupiter will be in very favorable houses at this stage.

Thus some progress in career is quite possible during 2015 to 2017, especially during mid 2015 to mid 2016.

This can happen through a change of job or a change of role in current job that will bring better pay.

In case you are not working now and want to find a position, this will be possible along the same time line.

However this not the best of periods for career and you will have major differences and even conflicts with both seniors and colleagues.

During period from 2018 to 2019, transit Saturn will be in your gain house from ascendant [very positive] but opposite to Moon and over Ketu [very negative].

You will get a major change to a much better job now with much better compensation and you will get this entirely on your own merit.

However your attitude will become quite negative at this stage with the result that you will get much frustrated with your job, mainly without any real reason.

Thus desired success in your work will not be forthcoming.

This phase is a very malefic stage in career and you must handle it very cautiously.

Avoid starting anything new wherever possible and also maintain your determination to perform well and ignore your views on the current job and the people related with it.

2020-2021 will be a period when you will try to change your job once again but there will not be any success at this stage.

2022 will start a comparatively better period for career that will continue till Mar 2025, but it is a time of shearing away from the current set up which may not be necessarily good.

Yet with support of transit Jupiter and your own efforts, this can be a much better phase.

Your responsibilities at work will increase and your accomplishments too will be great.

It is better to not start any long range project [if possible] at this stage as these will be surely delayed.

Prefer to take up project, when possible, that can be completed within a short time.

On the whole your success rate at work will be more stable and better at this stage.

During these ten years your inherent abilities will be frequently tested but will also be rewarded, if you maintain the right attitude.

Transit Jupiter in very favorable locations [except during 2020-2021] will protect your position and will bless you with very good financial gains on a nearly regular basis.

All you will need to do is to maintain a low profile, avoid arguments and controversies and just do your work with all earnestness and maintain good relation with all.

You will face some occasional `differences with colleagues and seniors.

Communication failure and attitude issues will be behind these and these can become major issues at times and can work against your own interests.

There can be many obstructions to your work and your performance can suffer, if communication is not proper at all times.

You may not be always allowed to use your own powers freely.

Your reaction towards this point must be streamlined through improved moderation of your attitude.

You should refrain from any power struggle at work since differences can lead to restrictions and can then graduate into censor and may make things even tougher for you to handle.

Just focus on team work and cooperate with all and stop offering unsolicited suggestions or comments or views.

If you can act in this way, transit Jupiter will keep your position stable and safe during these ten years.

Which pillar should be a focus of life?

The focus of your life during the coming ten years should be career followed by your marital life, home life and then your health.

Handled intelligently, your home life may offer you emotional support and confidence and will encourage you to do better at work and to accrue gains through that and also through a grounded state of mind.

Together these will much help you to maintain a better health necessary for continuous hard efforts.

Best Regards,
