Dear ABC,

THANKS FOR CHOOSING <http://www.indastro.com/>

We have been providing astrology consultation and advice on true vedic principles on the internet since 2000 and serviced over a million customers with our free and premium services. We have prepared Foundation Pillar Horoscope 2 years report:

Any horoscope is founded on four basic pillars that act as the fulcrums of most of the important events of our lives.

These four pillars are the ascendant, the 4th house, the 7th house and the 10th house.

A].

Role of Ascendant:

It is the 1st house of a horoscope and denotes the self, stature, health, general wellbeing, vitality, vigor, nature, temperament, disposition, personality and success and failure in efforts.

The Ascendant indicates the traits that the individual is inclined to be striving to.

This is the most personal part of the horoscope.

Role of 4th house:

It denotes mother, residence, property, education, and happiness, peace of mind, comforts and general welfare. This is the area of our deepest concern for security and shelter.

This is concerned with home, traditions, stability, and nurturing. This is where one seeks comfort and protection. One's activities here will be private and concealed.

Role of 7th house:

It denotes spouse, partner, marriage, family relationships, business partner, and relation with public, marital happiness, sexual desires, travels abroad, diplomacy and honor in another country, business tact, general happiness, general prosperity and cure of disease.

The personal tone of the houses 1 through 6, relate to interaction with others through the 7th house.

It suggests how one relates to the nearest ones.

This house is sometimes called the house of partnerships and marriage.

Role of 10th house:

This house denotes occupation, position, status, honor, dignity, respect, power, and travel to other countries, father and Karma.

B].

Rating of each pillar in order of strength and suggestions about which one of them [self, home, spouse or career] should be the most important.

From the point of view of inherent potential as indicated by your horoscope, the houses 1st, 7th, 10th and the 4th houses have gradually reducing potential.

Thus the ascendant [1st house] is the most potent house while the 4th house has comparatively the least potential though the variation of such strength is not much.

At the present stage of your life you should consider the 10th house to be the most important and it must receive your maximum attention, followed by the 4th, 7th and the 1st houses, in this order.

Due to several astrological reasons, the order of importance required by various houses is different from the order of their own strength.

C].

Areas to be prioritized and areas not to be prioritized:

Here we talk about the following areas after taking note of your age and station in life:

a)

Whether work or marriage should be more important:

The area of work should have more priority over marriage or marital life, while the area of marital life or getting married should not be overlooked.

This is due to the fact that major transits will soon become progressively more favorable for advancement of career and all direct or even indirect attention to it will bring more benefits to you.

The house of marriage being a secondary house of career, attention to either of them will be mutually complementary.

b)

Whether home or work should be more important:

Work life should be more important than home [though it is complementary to and stronger than the 4th house] as the 10th house has certain blemishes like Sun, the lord of 10th house being in ascendant Scorpio with Mercury, while transit saturn too will move in there very soon.

These can produce some bottlenecks for both home life and career.

Since the planetary affliction cannot be removed, more attention to career life will help to keep the career stable and improve home life with continued earning and will provide more confidence and peace of mind.

However this not to reduce the importance of promoting home life.

c)

Whether spouse or family should be more important:

The house of family [the 2nd house] is much afflicted from both ascendant and Moon and may not improve much despite increased effort from your side.

At the same time your 7th house is fairly strong and with some promotion, it can improve your marital life and this may indirectly be more useful to take care of the larger family.

Your spouse can be a quite useful helping hand in doing this, as your life partner and as a very important member of the family.

Current and coming transits will make this increasingly more possible and practical.

d)

Whether self-development or work and family should be more important:

Self development and work should clearly the more important of the two.

It should be considered as a continuous process that will indirectly support the family better.

This not to suggest that the larger family can be overlooked at any stage.

Further as is seen from your birth chart and the transits, the coming years will offer fairly good luck and scope self development

It is more prudent to make truly focused and timely use of the all opportunities that you may get to develop yourself further, especially since your ascendant is not very strong by itself.

D].

Brief predictions for 2years:

a)

General progress in each pillar:

First House:

Till 14 Jul 2015, your personal health, personal perceptions and attitude, self confidence, mental agility, good judgment and capacity to put in timely efforts will increase.
 Your actions will be imaginative, intelligent and intuitive.
 You will be able to extract better cooperation from others and gain from them.
 Failure rates or delays in all undertakings will come down and you will be more and more acceptable to others.
 But this status will improve even further for two more years after the above date.
 But on the flip side, after 14 Jul 2015, you will gradually have more ego and even pride.
 You will need to feel more and more important, will radiate over confidence, will have showy and rather commanding behavior and will prefer to move in higher circles.
 Transit Saturn in your ascendant will give you a separtive tendency and will also affect your health.
 Period from Jul 2015 to Sep 2016, you will do well to remain more vigilant about your attitude and act with more self control and foresight.
 Your all round luck and growth opportunities will gradually improve throughout these two years.

Fourth House:

Some differences, oppositions and confrontations within your home will be possible till 02 Nov 2014 but these will reduce considerably from after 02 Nov 2014 and more peace at home will be attained and will be discernible.
 This will be possible due to end of opposition of Mars [in your 4th house in your D_9 chart] by transit Saturn.
 But these problems at home will not be entirely eliminated and you will be still required to take special care and attention of your home life.
 Health of mother, if applicable, will remain a concern though to a reduced degree.
 Level of domestic comforts will not improve to the degree that you may look for.
 Property matter can be quite tricky during the two years and even later till 27 Oct 2017.
 Avoid going for a sale or mortgage of any property during these two years.

Seventh House:

During these two years, events of your 7th house will be of mixed nature but these will be much more on the positive side till 15 Jul 2015.
 Transit Jupiter will specifically help you on this.
 Overall relation with spouse and even with those at work will be much better and encouraging.
 You will get good cooperation and support while your own approach to them will be very positive.
 After this date [14 Jul 2015] till the end of the two years, you will need to maintain a flexible attitude to make better use of the planetary transits.
 Avoid being stubborn or egoistic and take the path of compromise, especially at work place, since transit Saturn will be moving over your natal Sun in birth chart and square to natal Jupiter in your D_10 career chart.
 You will also need to take similar care with your spouse or with other people at home.
 But take all important decisions after a fair and open discussion with your spouse as this will help you much.

Tenth house:

The current main period lord Venus and the current sub period lord Jupiter are not sufficiently well placed while the next sub period lord Saturn is only marginally better.
 Thus they do not promote or protect your life events.
 You transit chart is comparatively better and offers fairly good support.
 Transit Saturn is exalted till 02 Nov 2014 but in the 8th house from your Moon [Astama Sani] and in your loss house from ascendant.
 Thus career will face many issues and obstructions till 02 Nov 2014 yet it will be tsable due to very favorable transit of Jupiter in exlatation in yourfortune house from ascendant.

Transit Jupiter in 9th till 14 Jul 2015 and then in the 10h house will protect and promote career, especially after 14 Jul 2015.

Thus some progress in career at that stage is possible.

This can happen through a change of job or a change of role in current job that will bring better pay.

But change of job is more likely.

This progress can happen only around mid 2015 or a little later.

In case you are not working now and want to find a position, this will be possible along the same time line.

Till 02 Nov 2014, you will face major differences with seniors and face restrictions from them.

Your attitude may remain combative and professional image can decline.

Communication failure will be a major issue and this will work against your own interests.

Through anxiety over such events, your performance can suffer.

After 02 Nov 2014, communication will not improve and superiors will be more stubbornly obstructive.

Your attitude towards them must be improved through moderation.

Superiors may keep you under more restrictions.

You will not be allowed to use your own powers freely.

You should refrain from any power struggle at work since restrictions on you may graduate to censor and may make things tougher for you to handle.

Just focus on team work and cooperate with all and stop offering unsolicited suggestions or comments.

If you can act in this way, transit Jupiter will keep your position stable and safe during these two years.

Which pillar should be a focus of life?

The focus of your life during the coming two years should be career and home life followed by your health.

Home life will offer you emotional support and confidence and will encourage you to do better in handling any issue at work and to accrue gains through determination, appropriate and timely action and a grounded state of mind.

These together will much help you to maintain a better health necessary for continuous hard efforts.

Best Regards,
